

ARIZONA
PICKLEBALL PLAYERS LEAGUE

APPL Free Agents Terms of Use

Version: 2026-07-18-v1

APPL Free Agents is a service provided by the Arizona Pickleball Players League (APPL) to help players connect with other players for the purpose of forming or joining APPL teams.

By creating and using an APPL Free Agents account, you agree to these Terms of Use.

- You are responsible for providing accurate account and profile information and for your interactions with other users. APPL Free Agents is a connection service only. APPL does not guarantee that you will find a team, be selected for a team, or be eligible to participate in any particular APPL league, division, or competition.
- You agree to use APPL Free Agents only for lawful and appropriate purposes and in accordance with the APPL Free Agents Community Guidelines.
- APPL may modify, suspend, or discontinue features of the service. APPL may also suspend or terminate a user's access for violations of these Terms, the Community Guidelines, APPL policies, or misuse of the service.
- You may hide your player card from other players without deleting your account. You may also request permanent deletion of your APPL Free Agents account and associated data through the deletion process provided by the app.
- APPL Free Agents is provided on an "as available" basis. While APPL works to maintain a reliable service, uninterrupted or error-free operation is not guaranteed.
- These Terms may be updated from time to time. If APPL makes an update that requires renewed acceptance, you will be asked to review and accept the updated Terms before continuing to use APPL Free Agents.

Last updated: July 18, 2026